(U) Folsom – Guns Stolen From 2 Gun Stores In Rocklin And Folsom

(U) Police are investigating two gun store burglaries in Rocklin and Folsom, in which multiple guns were taken early this morning. The first burglary, which was caught on surveillance video, happened about 4 a.m. at the Rocklin Armory on Granite Drive in Rocklin, according to the store's owner. The video shows a black SUV crashing through the front door of the business, and as many as five men were seen getting out of the car. The second burglary happened about 4:45 a.m. at the STS Guns on East Bidwell Street in Folsom. The owner of that store said that about 15 to 16 handguns were taken and possibly some tactical rifles, although Folsom police officers are still working to confirm exactly what was stolen.

(U) Colorado – Google Notifies Users Of 4,000 State-Sponsored Cyber Attacks Per Month

(U) Aspen – A senior executive of Alphabet Inc's Google unit said on Monday that the company was notifying customers of 4,000 state-sponsored cyber attacks per month. Speaking at a Fortune magazine tech conference in Aspen, Colorado, Google senior vice president and Alphabet board member Diane Greene mentioned the figure while touting Google's security prowess. The internet search leader, which develops the Android mobile system and also offers email and a range of other applications for consumers, has led the way in notifying users of government spying. Others, including Microsoft Corp, have since followed suit. Google had previously said that it had been issuing tens of thousands of warnings every few months and that customers often upgraded their security in response.

(U) Louisiana – Three Arrested in Plot to Harm Officers

(U) Baton Rouge – Police have arrested three people they believe were planning to kill police in the Louisiana city. The threat emerged after the shooting death of Alton Sterling last week by Baton Rouge police, which has prompted weeklong protests by people concerned about police use of deadly force. Police said they learned of the plot when an officer responded to a burglary at Cash America Pawn early Saturday morning and arrested a man in the store.

(U) Ohio – New Black Panther Party Says to Carry Arms in Cleveland If Legal

(U) Cleveland – The New Black Panther Party will carry firearms for self-defense during demonstrations in Cleveland ahead of next week's Republican convention if allowed under Ohio law, the group's chairman said. The plan by the group could add to security headaches for the Ohio city after last week's killing of five police officers in Dallas by a US Army veteran who had been drawn to black separatist ideology, including on Facebook, before hatching his plan to target white police officers. Several other groups, including some supporters of presumptive Republican presidential nominee Donald Trump, have

(U) INTERNATIONAL*(U) Brazil – Security Enhanced Ahead of Olympic Games

(U) Rio de Janeiro – The federal government in Brazil says it is releasing additional funding to enhance security ahead of next month's Olympics in Rio de Janeiro. Sports Minister Leonardo Picciani said the armed forces would get an extra $24m to help them meet security needs. The military will begin patrolling sports venues beginning on 24 July, he added. More than 80,000 police and soldiers will patrol the streets of Rio for the duration of the games.

(U) Iraq – ISIL Releases New Video of Captive British Journalist

(U) Mosul – The media arm of the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL) released a new video yesterday showing captive British journalist John Cantlie in the Iraqi city of Mosul. It is the 12th video he has been featured in since mid-2014. Cantlie was kidnapped alongside American journalist James Foley in 2012 in Syria. In the three-minute video, Cantlie stands in front of the near-pulverized remains of Mosul University, which the US military bombed in March on intelligence that it was being used as headquarters by ISIL.

(U) SOUTHWEST BORDER*(U) Texas – 35 Immigrants Rescued from Stash House

(U) Edinburg – Border Patrol agents have rescued 35 immigrants from a stash house in South Texas, and US Customs and Border Protection officials yesterday announced a suspected smuggler from Mexico was arrested. The 34 adults and one juvenile found Monday night at a home in Edinburg were turned over to federal authorities for processing. Agents became aware of the stash house following a vehicle stop, when the driver acknowledged being the caretaker of the home. Officers who were granted permission to search the residence found immigrants from Mexico, El Salvador, Guatemala and Honduras.
